

Architecture, Space and Society in China

Workshop

Organization: Heike Delitz (University of Bamberg, University of Mainz), Marius Meinhof (University of Bielefeld)

Thursday, October 28th, 2021, 9:30 AM – 3 PM (zoom)

9:30 Marius Meinhof, Heike Delitz: Introduction

9:45-10.15 Madleen Kobi: The Seasonality of Public Space Use. Approaching Urban Climate as Thermal, Spatial and Material Manifestation in Chongqing

10:15-10.45 Ryanne Flock: What can we learn from public space in urban China? The example of Guangzhou's past and present

10:45-11.15 Discussion

11:15 Lunch break

12:00-12.30 Heike Delitz: Yaodong: Architectural Institution and Transformation of Society in the Central China's Loess Plateau

12:30-13.00 Grete Schönebeck: Building homes for the family - graves in contemporary China

13:00-13.30 Yiming Zhang: Wedding space and the representation of filial piety

13:30-14.15 Discussion

14:15 break

14:30 Final discussion

In case of interest, please write an email: heike.delitz@uni-bamberg.de.